

Course Description

Faculty: Faculty of Social Science

Study program: Albanian language and literature

Course Title: Albanian Language's Syntax

Course Credits: 5

Language of Instruction: Albanian

Course Description: In Albanian language's Syntax course, the students offers theoretical knowledge of contemporary linguistics and appropriate application in Albanian language's syntactic structure.

Course Goals: With the acquired knowledge, the students must know and master the syntactic constructions of the Albanian's standard in a fully and easier way, but not only. They do general traditional theoretical treatment in syntax's field also approach of various contemporary theoretical positions. Exercises and surveys are methodical basis of the course, which supports the theory.

Course Requirements: Activation in seminar sessions and attendance . Coursework. Exam

Grading: Attendance: Activation in seminar sessions and attendance - 10 points

Continuous control: Test during the semester: 30 points

Exam: 60 points

Course Schedule: The student must attend 75% of lectures and seminars. In another case, any absence must be justifiable. He should be active in the seminars, either with the preparation of a topic, or in the development of exercises. This helps the student earn points during the semester.